Electricity bills gaborone

There is no damage to property anticipated during program, however customers are advised to use adaptors with surge protection to protect their appliances.

Customers should please switch off all apparatuses and appliances during an outage so that they can minimise the effect of this surge, and also protect their own equipment against possible damage.

NESC has no age restriction. However, individuals aged 60 years and above shall not benefit from the credit facility, and shall pay the NESC amount outright.

No, additional to the NESC, customers pay Value Added Tax and where they are applying for a credit facility; they shall pay the credit worthiness checks related charges by ITC.

Households only (domestic customers) for 60 Amps single phase supply. Applicants for a 60 Amps three phase supply will benefit to the extent of the cost of the 60 Amps single phase supply.

It is necessary to stagger implementation of NESC because the 5 thebe levy cannot generate enough funds to roll out the scheme to all customers at the same time.
